Every Dollar Up to $5,000 Will Be Doubled to Support Survivors: Thanks to SCHEELS (Sandy, UT)

West Jordan, Utah — This Giving Tuesday, South Valley Services (SVS) is excited to announce a $5,000 matching pledge to help raise $10,000 for survivors of domestic violence. Every donation made through this campaign will be doubled, empowering survivors to access the tools they need for independence and stability.

"At South Valley Services, we understand how vital cell phones are for survivors. A cell phone provides access to job opportunities, housing applications, and support systems, all critical for building a life free from violence. Having a reliable phone service removes significant barriers for survivors, allowing them to regain independence and thrive," says Lindsey Boyer, Executive Director at SVS.

Funds raised can help provide survivors with:

- Cell phone activation fees
- Three months of service
- Connection to vital resources
- Supporting survivors in their various unique needs

This week's focus highlights SVS's commitment to empowering survivors and ensuring they have the resources to take the next step forward. Donors can make an even greater impact with every dollar matched up to $5,000.
