The Allstate Foundation Awards Helping Hands Grant to SVS to support survivors

UTAH —March 23, 2026 —SVS, a local 501(c)(3) organization providing shelter and supportive services for domestic violence and sexual assault survivors, has been awarded the Helping Hands grant from The Allstate Foundation.

The Allstate Foundation is an independent, charitable organization made possible by subsidiaries of The Allstate Corporation (NYSE: ALL). Through partnerships with nonprofit organizations across the country, The Allstate Foundation brings the relationships, reputation, and resources of Allstate to support innovative and lasting solutions that enhance people’s well-being and prosperity. With a focus on building financial independence for domestic violence survivors, empowering youth, and celebrating the charitable community involvement of Allstate agency owners and employees, The Allstate Foundation works to bring out the good in people’s lives.

Thanks to community supporters like The Shonie Insurance Group and Shonie Christensen, survivors can receive support from incredible grants like Helping Hands year after year.

“We are thankful for our continuous relationship over the years with the Allstate Foundation through their Helping Hands Grant. Without partners like these, we couldn’t support as many survivors as we do.” says Lindsey Boyer, executive director at SVS.

SVS offers weekly support groups and adult classes, including a Financial Empowerment course for shelter residents to educate survivors and assist them in becoming more financially independent.

Domestic violence impacts every corner of our community, and it takes every corner of our community to respond. Diverse funding to organizations like SVS — from individuals, businesses, foundations, and local partners — ensures that survivors have consistent, reliable support regardless of challenges arise.

When our community invests together, we create a stronger, more stable safety net where survivors can access safety, empowerment, and a healing path forward.
