Community Support at LiveDAYBREAK's Horizon Arts Festival Benefits SVS

Salt Lake County — Utah, October 2, 2026 – SVS, a dedicated domestic violence services organization providing safe shelter, advocacy, counseling, and community education, is recognizing the community support generated through LiveDAYBREAK's 2026 Horizon Arts Festival.

The annual festival brought residents, artists, businesses, and attendees together for an evening celebrating creativity and community. As part of the event, LiveDAYBREAK hosted a silent auction benefiting SVS. Donations and winning bids from community members and participating companies raised funds to help SVS provide shelter, advocacy, counseling, case management, prevention, and education services.

The Larry H. & Gail Miller Family Foundation provided additional support through a $25,000 contribution and a dollar-for-dollar match on silent auction proceeds and donations made through the Horizon Arts Festival initiative. This support will extend the reach of the community's generosity and help increase resources available to those seeking safety and healing.

"The community support and the generosity of partners have been instrumental in our ability to grow and enhance our services," said Lindsey Boyer, Executive Director of SVS. "Their support has not only provided critical funding but has also inspired hope and resilience in our community. We are incredibly grateful for their partnership and commitment to our cause."
